Press release of May 23, 2022

Key AgTech event, LFD Day will take place on June 14, 2022 in Paris... Leave your mark!

In addition to leaving its mark on people's minds, French and European agricultural and food innovation leaves its positive mark on the world: society, farmers, the environment, territories, investors, the entrepreneurial sphere, governments... The stakeholders in the AgriTech sector are meeting in Paris to promote, support, finance and accompany innovations for agriculture and food.

Together, what mark do we want to leave? What innovations will enable us to meet the major challenges of today and tomorrow? The potential is huge, and France is not a simple pawn on the international scene. We are convinced, now is the time of collaborative action!

Innovative startup? Farmer? Cooperative group? Investor? Researcher? Institutional actor? or simply curious? Leave your mark!

Join us and MEET THE AGTECH ECOSYSTEM

The program includes:

- ⑥ More than 50 speakers
- ⑥ 40 Workshops led by our experts & partners
- ⑥ 120 french and international startups
- ⑥ More than 50 investment funds
- ⑥ 1 Conference program dedicated to the theme of "How to leave our mark" (environment, society, economy & territories)
- + 1 Business meeting platform (B2Match) to organize your day as you want!

This 6th edition of LFD Day is for the whole team of La Ferme Digitale, its members and partners, an opportunity to bring together all the actors of the agricultural and food value chain. Farmers, citizens, manufacturers, researchers, investors... Come and immerse yourself in the world of innovations that carry today's agriculture and support tomorrow's!

Come and meet the French AgriTech but not only... because LFD Day is an international event! It is a great pride to be able to offer you this day which is part of the great and big ambitions of our association
